5 th grade & Up	A TUGGING STRING Greenberg's first novel (historical fiction) based upon growing up with a father who was the primary attorney for Dr. Martin Luther King. It describes, with historical accuracy, the events leading up to and following Dr. King's Selma – Montgomery Voting Rights March of 1965 which helped bring about passage of the 1965 Voting Rights Act that changed the face of American politics. And it describes the stories of many others whose destinies intersected with this, from Pres. Lyndon Johnson, to J. Edgar Hoover, to a woman trying to vote in segregated Alabama, to a young David Greenberg. Photos.	Hardcover $18
Pre K & Up	ENCHANTED LIONS Beautiful, strong, gentle lions mysteriously walk out of the ocean. They frisk like kittens, doze. One jumps into a little girls' bedroom. She climbs on his back and they leap into outer space. They jump rope crescent moons, hopscotch asteroids, race a unicorn. A stellar whale saves them from a black hole. The lion takes her home, tucks her in, and she falls happily asleep. Color illustrations.	Hardcover $17
